ZANI DEL FRA'
MILANO

Our history, our past and our strength

Zani Del Fra' is deeply intertwined with my family's legacy, which has been dedicated to crafting fine leathers for four generations, supplying some of the largest international fashion brands.

I have a profound love for our products, and leather has been a significant part of my life: its aroma, hues, softness, and the various prints it can take on have always stirred strong emotions within me.

At Zani Del Fra', I aimed to convey these intense sensations through the accessories featured in our collection.

I hope you will share my enthusiasm for the quality of materials, the careful selection of leather colors, and the fabric combinations we have chosen to complement it. I also invite you to explore, like embarking on a journey, the diverse origins and craftsmanship of the leathers that celebrate the exceptional Italian tradition, which stands as the finest in the world.
